Beta Gamma Sponsors Assembly

Two plays presented by members of Ernest Crozier Phillips' drama classes constituted the Beta Gamma assembly held at Willard auditorium this week.

The first play, a parody of the eternal triangle, presented Arthur Coleman in the role of the lover; Sam Gosney as the husband; Harriet Abrams as the wife; and Philip Hood as the director.

Arthur Casey had complete charge of the second, more serious, presentation. In it Sam Gosney was cast as the father and captain, Agnes Brady and Art Casey were his daughter and son, and Philip Hood played the role of the doctor. The three corpses were characterized by Joe Yocam, John Haskell and John Christ.

Roemer Names Next Year's Executive Board Members

With Betty Lee as W. A. A. representative, Al Markel as commissioner of forensics and productions, Allan Mackey as commissioner of men's athletics and Mary Lou MacFarlane as social administrator, Associated Student President Charles Roemer's board was nearly ready for its initial action today.

DEAN FISK WILL TAKE YEAR'S LEAVE

Rumors anent Dean Fisk's departure to a new position have been current for more than two months. He was recently granted a year's leave of absence by the board of education in order to study and teach at Yale in pursuit of a doctor's degree.

Executive Board Closes Accounts

All of the Associated Student accounts except four were closed at a recent Executive Board meeting. The accounts which are still open are: social, $250; advertising, $10.70; A. W. S., $10; swimming, $3.00; and the treasurer's account. Wayne Wilhite states that all accounts will be closed today, when the board meets again.

It was moved that 15 track men be awarded letters. Plans for an inter-club council were discussed and the Gauchos were granted a $33 subsidy for the Spring Sport dance.

Jaysee Has Picture In Today's Collegiate Digest

Santa Ana junior college is given nation-wide attention in this week's issue of Collegiate Digest, it was revealed today by Jane Crawford, El Don editor. A photograph on page two of the Digest shows a demonstration of fencing by Yoshiki Yoshida and Hoshie Asari.

The picture was taken by Stewart Meece and submitted to the rotogravure supplement by Jack Pegues.

Del Anos Are Distributed

By Frances Was

Culminating with almost colossal success the very first dual editorship in the history of the year book, Del Ano was delivered to the student body Wednesday noon from the hands of Editors Charles Downie and Jack Pegues.

Dave Shepherd who combined the two jobs of layout editor and business manager, and the art staff headed by Elizabeth Woods under the sponsorship of Miss Frances Edge, aided the editors.

The new and modern type called Vogue and the marginless pages were two of the outstanding features of the book.

SCHOOL BOARD SETS $6 PRICE; IS $1 REDUCTION

Though final sanction is as yet a thing of the future, recent discussion at a torrid session of the Santa Ana board of education meeting indicated that student tickets would be compulsory at Santa Ana junior college next term.

The price has tentatively been set at $6, a one dollar reduction over previous years.

The motion lacks a final decision because board members are as yet undecided upon the best method of making the student ticket compulsory.

It is expected that the compulsory ticket will save the student a great deal in that the dances and various other social events can be made free to the whole student body. This also will tend to increase attendance at the functions and give balance to the student's life.

Though the ticket price will be lowered if the motion is past, it has been indicated that social activities will not decrease.

Provision for working out student tickets is expected to be voted by incoming student prexy, Charles Roemer's board at an early meeting.

Three Prizes To Be Awarded At Commencement

Three prizes will be awarded to outstanding students of the jaysee sophomore class at commencement June 13, it was announced today by Dean McKee Fisk.

The Robert L. Brown prizes of $25 each are awarded annually to the man and woman of the graduating class who are considered the best all-around members of the group. The Beta Gamma prize of $25 is given to the student who has contributed the most conspicuous service in extra-curricular activities during the junior college course.

Kathryn Bement was last year's winner of the $25 cash award.

Alumni Association To Hold Annual Meeting Thursday

The annual meeting of the junior college Alumni association will be held in the east lobby of the Y. M. C. A. building, Church and Sycamore streets, at 8 p. m. Thursday, June 13, it was announced today by Fred Humiston, president of the graduate group. All members of the 1935 class are invited to attend.

The meeting is held each year following commencement exercises. Humiston promises an entertaining program and urges that all graduates of jaysee attend the annual gathering.

Other officers of the alumni group are Marion Parsons, vice-president; Katherine Spicer, secretary; and Miner Whitford, treasurer.

Ebell Set For Luncheon

Ebell clubhouse has been chosen as the location for the annual graduate luncheon, to be held Thursday, June 13, at 1:15 p. m., according to Marian Hawk, social chairman of the Associated Students.

The luncheon, free to Associated Students, is being planned by Mrs. C. Watkins of the Ebell club and will be served by the club members.

Miss Hawk announced that Claude Owens has charge of the program and that Dorothy Coe and the Gitanas will take care of the decorations.

The charge will be 50 cents to non-Associated Student members, it was stated.

Local Students Win Scholarships

Jack Pegues and Fredda Sawtelle, two prominent El Don staff members, have both been awarded scholarships for next year, Pegues from U. S. C. and Sawtelle from Redlands university.

Pegues, co-editor of El Don and the Fiesta editor of El Don, writer of Editorial Alley, and a journalism major, was awarded the Copely prize for journalism from the University of Southern California. Pegues was the editor of El Don last year.

Sawtelle, editor of El Don the first semester, was awarded the annual Alpha Gamma Sigma scholarship from the University of Redlands. This scholarship award is based on general scholastic abilities.

For the past two years students from Santa Ana junior college have won the award. Last year Ruth Jenkins won it. The year before Ernest Thacker won it.

Sawtelle's scholarship, according to reports, covers most of her expenses. Pegues' scholarship is for $100, $25 on each semester's tuition for the next four semesters.

The psychology associated with graduation is peculiar. And because of this peculiarity, the writer intends to toss a bit of verbiage tripe anent the subject. And how more expedient or seemly than to quote bodily, for a lead, a Hindu proverb, as follows and to wit:

"Help thy brother's boat across, and lo, thine own has reached the other shore."

Leaving the situation status quo for the instant, the writer will tool off at a tangent and try to clear up what may seem, at this point, muddled wordiness.

JOE COLLEGE

Next week, 145 of us are scheduled to graduate. The school will say at that time, "Good bye, Joe College, and here is a certificate of academic progress for two years of tough, college study."

Having this in mind, it is then a smart policy to reflect the worth of that certificate of academic progress, and its value standing alone sans the bulkheads and buffers of extra-curricular enterprise, social polish, and professional contact. And the reply inevitably comes back, that without balanced activity in all of the ramified college program, the certificate carries surprisingly little authority or recommendation.

As the writer looks back at those of the college's pseudo intellects who never contributed so much as a suggestion toward the extra-curricular program, ignoring social contact, shunning Associated Student unity—baldly, without making a true friend in the entire two years—he wonders at the attraction, or excuse, for such an isolation and what it will lead to.

REGRETS

It is customary for the graduate to review the grades he might have made, the opportunities missed, and the dates he could have had; but the chief, and most real of regrets is the friends he might have had.

The haute monde of collegiana—yes, the creme-de-creme of this very graduating class—is not the fellow who holed up in September, 1933, to emerge on the commencement platform two years later in pristine glory, falsely representing himself as Joe College. It is hardly necessary for the real Joe C. to walk down the narrow aisle for a diploma to let his fellows know he graduates.

PERSONAL

The writer takes this opportunity to publicly thank those people who contributed such valuable assistance toward his winning a journalism scholarship prize to the University of Southern California. It is a definite encouragement to own such friendships. To John H. McCoy, President D. K. Hammond, and Paul Neff, many thanks.

Politics, Parties, and Platforms

Republican National Committee Chairman Criticises New Deal Tactics

By HON. HENRY P. FLETCHER

(Chairman, Republican National Committee)

The young men and women of college age are weighing the two greatest parties in the balance. The Republican party welcomes the comparison. The historic Democratic party has left its moorings and under the flag of the "New Deal" is sailing out into the sea of socialistic experimentation.

During the past two years it has tried many nostrums and short cuts to cure the depression. As each one fails it tries another, even more reckless. Its motto seems to be "L'audace at encore l'audace". Every student of history knows that policy led France through the depths to the dictatorship of Napoleon.

The planned economy of the Wallaces, Warrens and Tugwells (and the President is responsible for their acts and must approve their public utterances or he would dismiss them) is merely a "New Deal" version of the Marxian philosophy.

The Republican party believes that there is no substitute for work and thrift. It believes the laborer is worthy of hire and has the right to keep and enjoy the fruits of his labor. It is concerned with the preservation of an economic system which encourages the individual to practise thrift and industry, to create wealth and to use it legitimately for the promotion of the welfare of all the people and the development of the country.

The Republican party recognizes, at the same time, that conditions are constantly changing and that practices and methods must be changed to meet these new conditions. But it believes that the reforms and changes which are needed can and should be made within the framework of our federal Constitution. They should be based upon mature study, taking into account the complexity of our national life as well as the experience of other nations. We believe that true progress can be made only in this way.

The "New Deal" calls itself progressive. It is not progressive. It is radical. There is a difference. Progressivism means progress in that you hold advances made, but radicalism is always followed by a backward swing of the pendulum, so that in the end it's reactionary. However, it must be admitted that radicalism has the attraction of adventure, but it is the adventure which follows a will o' the wisp. The hasty measures of the "New Deal" are leading farther into the swamp.

The Republican party is not conservative if by that is meant the saving and sheltering of privilege and greed. It is not conservative if by that is meant it stands for special favors to a few individuals or to special classes.

The Republican party believes before there can be any genuine recovery of lasting character, or any assurance of security in the future, certain definite changes in public policies must be made.

1—We must return to a stable currency. Without that there can be no security for any kind of investments.

2—We must bring our federal expenditures down to within a reasonable distance of our federal income and the people, through their legislative bodies, must keep control of the public purse strings. The billions of public debt and the interest charges thereon, now being piled up to pay for the socialistic experiments of the "New Deal", will have to be paid by the rising generation, out of the wages and incomes of tomorrow. The only alternative to this prospect is an orgy of inflation, which would wipe out the savings of every individual.

3—We must stop using federal funds to set the government up in business in competition with private enterprise.

4—We must stop the definite movement toward State Socialism which has for its purpose, if not the ownership, at least the rigid governmental control and operation of agriculture, finance, business and industry.

It cannot be denied that the "New Deal" has sown the wind of Socialism. They are now reaping the whirlwind. Their followers are getting out of hand. Their spacious promises have encouraged the lunatic fringe and the demagogue. All the zig-zigging to the right or to the left which this administration may try cannot relieve it of the responsibility for the influences and groups now busily engaged in promoting their schemes—some grotesque, some malign.

You may smile at this as an exaggerated picture. I hope it is. But to the young men and women who are not carried away by phrase makers and are now assuming the status of citizenship, American life today offers a greater responsibility and a greater opportunity than has been offered to any other generation, excepting only those of 1776 and of 1861. The country is in danger, more danger than it ever has been from a foreign war.

Just a word to the young women of today. In the World War and in preceding wars the women of the country did their bit behind the lines. In this great political and economic struggle which is to decide the destinies of this nation and

SOLILOQUY

By a Chain Letter Receptient
To mail or not to mail, that is the question.
Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer
The sneers and insults of an outraged postman
Or to take up arms against a chain of letters
And by not mailing, break it. To tear, to burn,
And by this act to say we end the love
Of dimes and dimes and dimes the flesh is heir to—
'Tis a noble gesture, much to be admired.
To tear, perchance to lose—Aye, there's the rub.
For in that tearing what vast profits may
When we have broken the chain, be quite dissolved?
For who would bear the burdened postman's groans,
The annoyed postmaster's threats, the cost of stamps,
The insolence of friends who will not see
The shining glory of Prosperity Clubs,
When he himself might his decision make
With a pair of scissors?
But that the fear of something after cutting,
That state of sharp regret from which no dead,
Dead chain may be revived, must give us pause,
And make us rather bear the scorn of postmen
Than turn and rend our letter bit from bit.
Thus avarice makes cowards of us all,
And thus the native hue of resolution
Is sicklied o'er with the pale cast of dimes.
And persons who did seem intelligent
With this regard their scissors lay aside
And send this letter on.

the future of our citizens, the women can be and should be on the front lines, as leaders.

There is every reason why the young men and women of today should align themselves with the Republican party. The challenge to the rising generation is not only what things of the past are going to be kept, but also what security for the future is going to be guaranteed and safeguarded.

The Republican party is now, as always, the party of the great middle classes of people. It stands, without apology or excuse, for

First The Blade Publication Is Achievement

By Phyllis Hannah

In the publication of Volume Eight of First the Blade, Santa Ana junior college has made a splendid achievement, with special credit going to the Tavern Tattlers who undertook the editing of the book, and to the Fine Arts Press under the direction of Thomas E. Williams, which published the final artistically designed product.

Contained in the anthology of California college student verse is the work of more than 70 young poets who represent approximately 45 universities and colleges of California.

As has been the custom, the book is published each year in a different college, all of which are members of the Intercollegiate Fellowship of Creative Art.

Blade Furnishes Opportunity
Symbolizing the tendency of our modern schools to encourage students in their individual tastes, First the Blade furnishes every California college student the golden opportunity to have his poetry judged by experts and published if meritorious. It is intended to encourage the beginners, to give each aspiring young poet or poetess an equal opportunity of winning recognition. The title of the book comes from the writings of Saint Mark, "First the Blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear."

Kenneth Ulrich will do laboratory research work for Orange county this summer and next year.

Luetta Vail will not continue in school, but plans to remain at home next year.

Eleanor Walter will work during the summer at Yosemite national park and is undecided about her plans for next year.

Dee Westmoreland has not definitely decided on next year's plans but favors attending the University of Washington.

Frank Wichman will be director of swimming and life saving at a camp in Wisconsin during the summer and plans to attend Santa Barbara State college next fall.

Edward Wickersheim will work on a ranch this summer and during next year. He plans to enter Davis Agricultural college in 1936.

Lucian Wilson is considering several offers of scholarships to California colleges but is undecided as to which one to accept.

ABBOTTMEN PLAY AT FOX HILLS TOMORROW

Spice Of Sport

By Marvin Spicer

Duncan Clark, El Don sports scribe, shifts his sights today and offers a bit on the nocturnal pastime of these parts.

Duncan Clark Says—

That fascinating sport of night-ball seems to have taken its toll among jaysee athletes. Not only that but several of the boys are real stars on National league teams while others present scintillating performances with teams of the Orange county loop or the City league.

Tom Lacy, the basketball player extraordinary, plays a whale of a game at shortstop for Bill Cole's Santa Ana Stars. That his hitting is far from weak is evidenced in the fact that he is batting No. 2 position.

Bruce Harnois, who plays basketball and football for the Dons, is hitting leadoff for the Olive Packers. "Little Bruce's" batting average is near the .400 figure.

Jack Dugan, the latest sensation in nightfall pitching ranks, also hails from the corridors of dear old College hall. He has been standing the boys on their ears while chucking for Olive. His double windup is said to be very baffling. Rumor has it that Dugan has been offered $20 a game to pitch for a Visalia softball team.

Gil Yorba hurls for the Irvine nine of the Orange loop and Harold Youel covers second base for the same team.

The Dons are amply represented in the City league. Armand Hanson, El Don cartoonist, plays right field and is relief hurler for the league-leading Elks. Hanson is hitting in the cleanup position and last week poled out a long homer.

Dave Styring plays first base and Bob Schwarm, basketball man, covers the keystone position at second for the Elks.

Cliff Lee, tennis and golf player, catches the slants of the 20-30 club's hurlers.

Net Ace May Play For Trojans In 1936

Lewis Wetherell, Orange county's leading tennis citizen and Santa Ana jaysee's No. 1 man, may not play another game for the Dons. The raven-haired stroker has announced his intentions of attending the University of Southern California next year.

Wetherell, who has more trophies than Barbara Hutton has ex-husbands, went through the jaysee competition without loss of a single set. This remarkable performance was made further scintillating by the fact that he won most of his sets by 6-0 scores.

When Fullerton sent a man against him in the No. 1 position who looked as if he were of about No. 3 calibre, Wetherell became

Gym Classes Take To Badminton For 'New' Sport Craze

Busch, Ware Members Of City Club

When strolling in the vicinity of the Y gym do not be surprised if you hear such calls as "Give him the bird" or "Where's the shuttlecock?" No, the Y moguls have not installed a fowl farm. The shuttlecock would make very poor eating and the bird, although it has feathers, can not fly under its own power.

The women and men of S. A. J. C. have taken up badminton, the sport that is sweeping the country like wildfire. The game combines the speed of handball, the skill of tennis, the stamina of squash, and the tail feathers of a goose.

Resembles Handball
The game is scored the same as in handball only the winning score is 15 instead of 21. The net is about six feet high and there are accommodations in the Y gym to enable three games to be played at once.

Ray Busch and Mildred Ware are the Don's premier players. Both are members of the Santa Ana Badminton club.

Local students took to the game with such a zest that the badminton gym classes were filled inside of a day.

Meece Rides Cycle From Beach Daily

The sands of Reggie McNamara, world's famous bicyclist, have about trickled out. Stew Meece, noted football photographer and itinerant from Huntington Beach, has served notice that he is grooming himself to replace the reknown "Iron-legs" as the foremost of the cyclists.

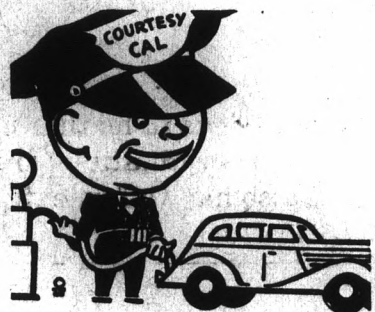

For the past two months Meece has slighted all forms of automatic motivation in his commuting from the sand strands near the oil wells. He has been riding a bicycle to and from school for a total of 32 miles a day.

Meece and Coach Bill Cook have a wager as to whether or not Stew will continue his peddling.

Don Golfers Lose So. Cal. Championship

With Captain Leo Abbott turning in the only win for the Dons, Santa Ana jaysee golf team lost the Southern California match play championship to Long Beach, winner of the Western division, in the playoffs Saturday over the Virginia country club course in Long Beach.

The Vikings defeated the Dons 4 to 1. Captain Leo Abbott turned in the lowest Don score. He shot a 79, which is considered not so bad for the 71-par course. Abbott defeated the Viking man, Joe Bort, one up.

Corson Cards
Gene Corson carded an 81, second lowest on the Don squad, but lost to Wood McKay of Long Beach who shot an 83 to defeat him 1 up.

Cliff Lee, probably the most improved player on the Don squad shot an 82, only to have it bettered by Frank Newell's 78, the lowest score made by either team. Lee was defeated four and three only after turning in the best performance of his career.

Preston Piper, manager of the team and co-captain, lost to Captain Sam Watson of Long Beach one up. Piper scored an 83, much below his capabilities, for the day before, on the same course, he shot a 78.

Tom Kistinger was defeated five and four by George Salzar of Long Beach who was forced to shoot an 80 to emerge victorious.

Hornets Capture Baseball Crown

Jumping on two Compton pitchers in an eighth inning rally, the Fullerton baseball team last week defeated Compton nine 4-1 to garner the Southern jaysee baseball title.

Although the Yellowjackets were held to three hits their ace hurler, Boisseranc, kept the Tarter's blows so well scattered that the Western division club never threatened.

Winter Sports Schedule Told By Conference

Eastern junior college conference schedules for all the winter and spring sports of 1936 were announced today.

The night of Jan. 11 marks the opening of the basketball season with Citrus at Santa Ana, Pomona at Chaffey, Riverside at San Bernardino, and the champion Fullerton Yellowjackets draw a bye.

As has been the rule of former years, the two leading quintets will meet at the end of the regular league season in order to determine the Eastern conference's representative against the winner of the Western division.

Track Schedule
Track makes its debut March 7. The schedule is the same as that of the cage season only the order is reversed. The Don's slate reads: Citrus at Citrus, Riverside here, Fullerton here, Chaffey at Ontario, San Bernardino here, and Pomona at Pomona.

Baseball has its coming out party on April 4 and swimming opens April 18.

Varsity S Club Will Continue

"The Varsity S club will continue to function next September when new officers will be elected," Sam Tucker, president, stated today.

"The purpose of the club has been to interest athletes from county high schools in Santa Ana junior college," he explained, "and this same plan will continue next semester."

The officers of the club aside from President Tucker, include Frank Kroener, vice-president; Kenneth Vandruuff, secretary; and Miles Norton, sergeant-at-arms. Coach Bill Cook is club adviser.

Don Golfers Trek To Fox Hills For Medalist Tourney

Meet Draws Outstanding Jaysee Stars

Bidding for the first Southland golf championship in the history of Santa Ana junior college, five golfers tomorrow swing northward to the Fox Hills course in Los Angeles for a 36 hole medalist tourney.

The team that swept through the Eastern conference without suffering a setback but last week succumbed to the strong Long Beach Viking outfit will be up against the strongest players of the Southland junior collegiate circles. Men from Riverside, San Bernardino, Pomona, and Fullerton are expected from the Eastern conference while the Western division is being counted on to send men from each school.

Santa Ana's entrants will be picked from the team of Captain Leo Abbott, Cliff Lee, Preston Piper, Gene Corson, and Tom Kistinger.

Berlin Olympics Eyed By Al Parr

Santa Ana jaysee may be represented at the 1936 Olympic Games in Berlin, if the ambitions of Al Parr, broadjumper on Coach Bill Cook's track team, are realized. Parr hopes to make the trip as a member of the American team in the hop-step-and-jump.

Parr's chances of going look bright, for with little training he has marks of better than 45 feet already. The third member of Uncle Sam's team at Los Angeles in 1932 won his position with a leap of a little better than 47 feet.

This being my last column (for this year, anyway). I am sacrificing something or other and will try to give you something a little different or something.

I try hard anyway, and Prof. Stewart, a journalism instructor at Stanford university once said, "Journalists work harder than any other lazy people in the world."

Still pleading our cause I advise you all to read what Lee Shippey of the L. A. Times (hoover dam) has to say about the local Jaysee journalists in his column in the May 30 issue. (Well, Santa Ana is mentioned anyways.)

Of the various lucky (and deserving) people getting scholarships, I envy J. "Editorial Alley" Pegues the most. He got one from the U. S. C. School of Journalism (one of the finest in the U. S.) Although I certainly disagree with the attitude he has been taking on this F. E. R. A. business (you know), I take my hat off to him (if I had one).

Oh, yes. This Del Ano signing business is sure great stuff for the ink manufacturers. It is very interesting, to watch the queer expressions on the scribes faces, as they try to construct something especially clever.

Don't let the exams bother you, kiddies . . . 'tsall.

Las Gitanas Hold Formal Installation

New officers for the Las Gitanas club were formally installed Tuesday night at the home of Ruth Wasson. Suzanne Clark, presided.

Those installed were: Jean McAuley, president; Margurite Hay, vice-president; Alice Compton, secretary; Mildred Goodwin, treasurer.

Dorothy Coe was appointed chairman of decorations for the Sophomore luncheon in the Ebell clubhouse, June 13.

Plans were made for the informal guest beach party to be held in the home of Farla Nell Clayton in Laguna Beach, June 14.

McFarland Is Elected Spinster President

Mary Lou McFarland was officially installed as Supreme Spinster for next semester at the Spinster meeting Monday night following elections held last week. Barbara Crawford, sub-supreme spinster; Valerie Demetriou, secretary; Frances Was, treasurer; and Margaret Ellen Sawyer, pledge mistress were also formally installed at the meeting.

The gathering was held at the home of Charlotte Mock. Plans were made during the evening for a mid-summer meeting to be held during the first two weeks of July. The affair will probably take the form of a bicycle party at the beach for the members.

Bandick Wins In Final Election

Walt Bandick, local journalism student, is the new vice-president of the Associated Students, having defeated Vernon Mansur by a small margin in the run-off election last week. Both are prominent in student affairs here and are graduates of Orange high school.

Charles Roemer was elected to the office of president in the first election. The office of treasurer was won by Charles McWaters, and Louise Sexton was elected secretary.

POLITICAL PARTIES

School Publications Get Attention In Education Magazine

Santa Ana school publications are given prominent attention in the June issue of the Sierra Educational News, California educational publication, in an article written by Instructor John H. McCoy on "Your School Paper".

The lengthy discussion is illustrated with cuts of El Don and The Generator, Santa Ana high school weekly newspaper. Material for the article was gathered during the first semester by Mr. McCoy with the aid of local journalism classes.

Phyllis Hanah Is New Moav Prexy

Phyllis Hannah was elected president of the Moavs for the coming semester at the club meeting held this week in the home of Elizabeth Hart, 1552 North Broadway.

The remaining offices will be filled by the following: Elsa Thompson, vice-president; Esther Meemstra, secretary; and Betty Ryherd, treasurer. It was decided to withhold the selection of publicity chairman until next year.

A sport dance to be given at the Isaac Walton cabin in Fullerton, June 15 for Moav members and their guests will be the last club activity for this year.

Phyllis Hannah and Avis Blades are in charge of arrangements for the social event.

Fisk To Take Year's Leave

It was reported that Fisk was recommended for the San Francisco jaysee post by University of Southern California officials nearly six months ago.

Positions Are Promotions

Either the Yale instructorship or the San Francisco teaching position would be a promotion for the enterprising, well-liked Santa Ana school man. Dean Fisk took over the deanship here in 1926, and has since brought the college to an enviable spot among Southland educational institutions.

More recently, Fisk engineered the transition of the college from its old sit by Santa Ana high school on West Walnut street to the present rejuvenated plant.

As previously announced, President D. K. Hammond, now principal of the high school, will assume Fisk's duties beginning immediately after the summer session. H. O. Russel, physics instructor, will direct summer school.

Lynn Crawford, present vice-principal and boys' adviser at the high school, will succeed President Hammond.

The title, Dean of Men, has already been created by the Board of Education for Calvin Flint, now completing his first year as social science instructor here.

Previously reported to have been considering offers to head the journalism and social science departments at Beverly Hills high school, John H. McCoy and Flint announced today they would remain with Santa Ana. McCoy has been made boys' counselor at the high school. He will not teach college public speaking next year, but confine himself to journalism.

Ernest Crozier Phillips, dramatics instructor at high school and jaysee will teach college classes exclusively next year. He takes over public speaking duties as well as dramatics.

Miss Dorothy Decker, who was granted a semester's leave of absence by the board this week, will return for the winter term. She will not be replaced, college officials said.

Other changes in the faculty line-up for next year will see Harry P. Jackson teaching full time at the college, and Mrs. Grace Knipe substituting for Miss Agnes Todd Miller in the English department. Miss Miller has been awarded a year's leave to study at the University of California at Berkeley.
